FIGHTING RENEWED AND MAY INCREASE

Reported That the Russians
Are Preparing to Strike.

In the Meantime Japs Rout the Russians and Capture a Village From Them.

PEACE CONFERENCE IS NEAR.

Tokio, July 31.—The following dispatch has been received from the Japanese army headquarters: "Our independent cavalry which entered Rykoff, on Sakhalin Island, 45 miles northeast of Port Due on July 27, withdrew on finding the city unfavorable to its occupation. Our army intended to crush the enemy's forces before they retreated from the eminence west of Rykoff, commenced to advance at 3 a. m. on July 28. The advance together with an independent body of cavalry, advanced by forced marches, taking and dislodging the enemy holding the northern extremity of Rykoff and rushed into the town.

"Confused street fighting ensued, but the town was completely taken at 8:30 o'clock in the morning. The enemy's losses, killed 300; taken prisoners, 325. The enemy's main strength which opposed our right column fled in disorder southward, taking the short route leading to Poronou.

"The enemy's strength which opposed our right column was some 5,000 infantry and four guns and four machine guns. The enemy's loss in trophies is under investigation."

Korea Wants a Say So.

New York, July 31.—Baron Komura, the Japanese peace plenipotentiary and Baron Kamekura, the Japanese financial agent, both of whom are Harvard graduates, went to Peekskill yesterday where they visited some friends of their college days.

Dispatches announcing that Korea, like China, would protest against a treaty of peace in which she is not consulted called to the attention of Almar Sato, of the commission, and all he would say was that time for any of the protests to be made was after negotiations have been concluded.

"Never Will I Make a Shameful Peace," Says the Czar.

St. Petersburg, July 31.—The emperor has issued the following note in reply to an appeal from the clergy of Orenburg not to conclude the war with a shameful peace: "The Russian people can rely on that never will I conclude a shameful peace or one unworthy of Great Russia."

Russian Army to Strike Blow.

St. Petersburg, July 31.—Reports received from the army at Manchuria show that while the peace plenipotentiaries are preparing to open negotiations which may bring the war to a close, the Russian soldiers are not relying on these efforts, but are preparing to strike a blow which will demonstrate the ability of Russia to continue the strife indefinitely.

10,000 Working Men Are On Strike.
Warsaw, July 31.—Ten thousand workmen are on a strike, and the movement is spreading daily. Conflicts between the strikers and troops are of frequent occurrence. Several union works have closed.

ONE KILLED,
And Five Badly Hurt in an Illinois Wreck.

Chicago, Ill., July 31.—A broken axle of a wheel of a smoking car caused the wrecking of the California special on the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad at Lemont, when one man was killed outright, four persons fatally injured and a score of other passengers received severe injuries. The identity of the man killed is still in doubt, but he is supposed to be John Grangire, an Italian laborer of Sunnyside, Utah.

The fatally injured are:
William Mac Veagh, right arm crushed and later amputated, right side and leg crushed.

H. L. Moody, Cleveland, Okla., skull fractured.

Aucroft Grobman, Italian, badly crushed and burned by fire that was started in the coach by the wreck.

Unidentified Italian laborer, skull fractured and chest crushed.

The man who was killed was found pinned down by seats which had fallen on him. He was crushed beyond recognition, but a paper found on him indicates that he was John Grangire, of Sunnyside, Utah.

RURAL CARRIERS

Will Soon Begin Painting the Boxes Green On Their Routes.

Washington, July 31.—With little buckets of green paint, rural free delivery carriers soon will be giving the boxes along their routes a new coat. The postal authorities have not decided how much the carriers shall be allowed for each box painted but the department will furnish the paint and brushes. Should any carrier decline to earn the extra money some one else will be employed.

THE KAISER

Is at Copenhagen Visiting King Christian—Very Significant.

Copenhagen, July 31.—Emperor William arrived this afternoon to visit King Christian. Court circles say it is only a courtesy to call, but in political circles the view is held that the Kaiser will attempt to convince King Christian that the Baltic Sea waters should be closed to all countries except those whose shores touch on sea.

IN FEBRUARY.

Secretary Shaw Will Leave the Treasury.

Washington, July 31.—It has become known here that Secretary of the Treasury Shaw, whose intention to leave the cabinet has been previously announced, will sever his connection with the Roosevelt administration next February. It is also understood that at that time he will become the head of one of the largest New York trust companies.

LIGHTNING FLASH STRUCK IN CROWD

Five Who Were Under Bathing House Instantly Killed.

Scores of Others Were Badly Injured—Reservoir Breaks and Drowns Several.

NEAR BRIDGEPORT YESTERDAY

Five Killed by Lightning.
New York, July 31.—During a thunder storm of terrific intensity which passed over New York yesterday afternoon, five persons were struck by lightning and instantly killed and nine seriously injured at Park Way bath, Coney Island.

At the same time one man was killed and three others prostrated at Gravesend beach.

The intense heat of the morning attracted a great multitude to the shore resorts and late in the afternoon when the storm blew up from the westward, Park Way beach was thronged with bathers and spectators.

The rain descended in torrents and hundreds of men, women and children sought shelter under the big bath house, which is elevated above the sand on piles.

The lightning was incessant and terrific thunder claps shook the bath house to the terror of the crowd huddled together beneath it.

A few minutes later a bolt of lightning struck the flag staff and grounded in the very thickest of the crowd. Nearly 50 persons were prostrated and the rest, screaming with terror, rushed out into the storm.

The names:
GEO. DUNWOODIE, of Buffalo.
JACOB FRANKEL, Manhattan.
ROBERT F. WASCH, Bronx Borough.

CHARLES BENNERLE, Brooklyn.
HENRY RANSEWELLER, Brooklyn.

FRANK BENNERLE, Brooklyn.
The injured:
David Willis, James J. Dunn, Tina Christensen, Harry Korho, Clara Thiel, Mary Curry, Isaac Raffe and wife, Amelia Schone, William Ransweller, John Apple, Daniel McCauley, all of Brooklyn.

About the same time Henry Kuhse was struck and killed while sheltering under a tree at Gravesend beach, and his son, William, with John Apple and Daniel McCauley, were rendered unconscious.

Lightning also struck at various points in the city. A store in Flushing avenue, Brooklyn, was burned, and a car in Sixth avenue, Manhattan, was set on fire, but the occupants escaped unhurt. The electric light and telephone wires in Bellevue hospital were struck several times, extinguishing all the lights and causing much alarm among the patients.

A Cloudburst in Kansas.

Junction City, Kan., July 31.—Near Wreford, six miles south of town, a cloudburst caused Lyons creek to rise more than twenty feet. The creek overflowed its banks doing much damage to farm land. About 1,000 feet of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway track was washed out. Today's trains have been running by way of the Union Pacific and Rock Island between this city and White City. A party of about thirty persons from this city, Chanute and Topeka were in camp close to Lyons creek and the flood came upon them while they were asleep. All members of the party escaped in their night clothes. Their camp equipment and clothes were washed away in the flood.

Reservoir Bursts in Connecticut.

Bridgeport, Conn., July 31.—Loss of life and immense damage to property followed the bursting of the reservoir north of this city as a result of an unprecedented fall of rain early yesterday.

The precipitation in a series of showers which struck across Connecticut reached a total of seven inches.

The dam at Word's Mill at Easton went out at 2 o'clock yesterday morning sending a great body of water down through the town of Trumbull.

In a short time the dam at the paper mill reservoir broke.

There was no warning to the people who lived on the banks of what

DUTCH SOLDIERS WERE VICTORIOUS

The Expedition Against Native
Rebels Was Successful.

Bombarded the Capital of Celebs and Then Landed Troops Upon the Island.

250 REBELS WERE LEFT DEAD.

London, July 31.—The correspondent of the Star at Singapore wires that the Dutch expedition sent out against the Prince of Honin, island of Celebs, Malay Archipelago, has been entirely successful.

Friday seven Dutch warships bombarded Bamparis Badju, capital of Celebs. Later they landed troops who charged the positions held by natives.

A fierce fight followed, and the rebels fled, leaving 256 dead on the field and in the fortress.

The Dutch lost only 3 killed and 26 wounded.

FINAL ARGUMENT

HEARD IN THE EVITTS' CASE
THIS MORNING.

Reported Judge Reed Will Decide
Against the Board of Aldermen.

Circuit Judge William Reed this morning heard the conclusion of the argument in the motion made by attorneys for the defense to the jurisdiction of the board of aldermen to try City Jailer Tom Evitts.

Attorney W. F. Bradshaw, Sr. for the prosecution made the concluding speech and this afternoon Judge Reed is writing his opinion, which he stated would not be given out before fully written, a meeting of the attorneys had been held with him, and the opinion filed with the clerk.

Judge Reed positively refused to give out any hint as to which way the case will be decided, stating that the press could get it all when the opinion was filed.

The contention of Jailer Evitts' attorneys is that no matter what a city official does he cannot be put out of office as long as he discharges the duties of the office. It is a very important question and will probably be taken to the court of appeals which ever way it is decided. Even if the court decides the board of aldermen may try the case and onst the jailer, it is understood that his attorneys could take it to the court of appeals and keep it there probably two years and he could continue to hold office pending the appeal, and by the time the case finished the rounds of the courts the jailer's term would have expired.

It is reported that Judge Reed will decide against the board of aldermen.

CONFERRED TODAY.

Secretary Wilson and Baron Rosen
Call On President.

Oyster Bay, July 31.—Secretary of Agriculture Wilson called on the president today to discuss the sundials in his department. It is said that other employees will be allowed to resign.

Baron Rosen, the Russian ambassador, also called to discuss the peace conference with the president.

Is usually a small water course. The house occupied by John Lesco, his wife and several children, was picked up by the flood and carried a mile below. The Lesco family were in the house at the time and were rescued after a perilous journey.

A house occupied by Michael Moran was hurled against the Berkshire bridge and smashed to kindling wood, and it is believed Moran was drowned.

The police and firemen went to the rescue and saved several lives.

In North Bridgeport the water swept against the Barnum bridge and wrecked it just as an ice wagon was crossing. In the wagon were John Wozneski and John Starklin. The wagon and horses were swept away and Wozneski was drowned. Starklin was able to swim ashore.

AN OPEN SWITCH

Results in a Wreck to a Rock Island Train.

Joliet, Ill., July 31.—A Rock Island special train rushed into an open switch near here today and 18 people and passengers, members of the train crew, were more or less injured. The engine, baggage car, and smoker, were badly wrecked. The switch was left open after a gravel train had passed out.

THE NUMBER GROWS

YELLOW FEVER INCREASING—
SEVERAL STATES QUARANTINE.

Yesterday There Were Three More Deaths—None Reported So Far Today.

New Orleans, July 31.—Twelve new cases of yellow fever were reported up to noon, but no deaths. Mississippi still refuses to allow any person to come into the state from New Orleans with or without a health certificate. The concentration of effort of this city is to prevent a spread of the scourge.

27 New Cases Yesterday.

New Orleans, July 31.—New yellow fever cases reported to 6 p. m. yesterday, 27.

Total cases 283.

Deaths yesterday 3. Deaths to yesterday, 57.

New fuel 4. Total fuel 14.

Though it was Sunday the work of sanitation, of the fumigation, oiling and screening went on just the same and will continue daily until the city has been thoroughly screened and made mosquito proof.

The record for yesterday shows little change from that of Saturday except in the reduction of the number of deaths.

Health Officer for Each Town.

Jackson, Miss., July 31.—The state board of health has issued an order requesting every town in the state to appoint a health officer clothed with the power to issue health certificates and allow him to charge only 25 cents for each certificate.

Reports from Lambertson today say that no new infection has appeared.

Big Fire in Cold Springs, N. Y.

Cold Springs, N. Y., July 31.—Fire today gutted the entire plant of the Baldwin Steel Co., throwing all employees out of work.

Rev. T. J. Newell Speaks on the Advantages of a Large College

Rev. T. J. Newell, of the Broadway Methodist church, yesterday in his able and interesting morning sermon referred to the Methodist college that Paducah is trying to get. He pointed out the many advantages it would be to the city, but did not touch on the chances of any of the cities that are striving to get it.

Among other things, Rev. Newell said:

We would enquire, then, what does the location of a well equipped Christian college in Paducah mean to its people?

(1) An increased population by a high class of people—people who belong to a class which desires the very best for their children and has accumulated a sufficiency of material good to own well improved property. Manufacturers attract a worthy class

LATE RUMORS ABOUT CONTROL OF THE I. C.

It is Now Denied That the Frisco Will Buy It.

Standard Oil Interests Reported to Have Acquired It and Will Make Extensions.

NOTHING DEFINITE YET KNOWN

Railroad news seems to be as uncertain as the weather. A short time ago it was announced that the Frisco had bought the Tennessee Central and would extend it from Hopkinsville to Paducah, and then build a line from Jopps, Ill., to Paducah. Now comes the report that Mr. H. Clay Pierce the well-known Standard Oil magnate, has acquired the entire interests of Mr. J. C. Van Blarcom in the Tennessee Central railroad, the latter, according to this report, retiring from all further connection with the road. The report also states that Mr. Pierce will be backed by ample means for the improvement and extensions of the railroad, and that the property will be developed along the lines which were outlined by Senator Bailey on the occasion of his recent visit to Nashville, says the Nashville Banner.

It will be remembered that when Senator Bailey recently visited Nashville he stated in an interview that he was investigating the Tennessee Central railroad property as the representative of capitalists who were amply able to push plans for the development of the railroad and tributary territory should they deem it wise to acquire the railroad. He stated further that should his clients secure control of the road they would at once build extensions on the north and east and such branch lines as would enable them to develop the coal lands and other portions of this section of the south. The report which reaches the Banner is to the effect that the people who were represented by Senator Bailey are now in control of the Tennessee Central railroad, or will be at an early date, and are prepared to carry out their plans as above.

It is also stated in the same connection that the new owners of the Tennessee Central will have active traffic arrangements with the Illinois Central and the Southern railroads, which will give them through connections for both passenger and freight service both east and west, as well as to the north.

The report that the Tennessee Central is to become a part of the Frisco system is denied in the report concerning the deal outlined above, it being said that the new interests will conduct the system as an independent road, but with friendly relations with connecting lines, thus establishing a new and extensive trunk line through this territory.

Another Bennington Death.

Washington, July 31.—Another death among the men injured by the explosion on the gunboat Bennington was reported today, bringing the total death list up to 63 men.

Three Killed in a Riot.

Bluefield, W. Va., July 31.—A riot between Italians and Americans occurred at Glatto today. Three were killed and ten injured, some of whom will die.

There is No Danger in Paducah— No Quarantine Probable at Present quarantining Paducah, so far as can be learned. The universal sentiment here seems to be against any such step. Kentucky, confident that yellow fever will not be brought this far north, has opened wide her gates to the fever refugees, and they are coming into the state by the hundred.

Of course should it at any time look as if it were advisable to quarantine there would be a unanimous demand for a quarantine.

Today merchants, doctors and scores of others who were asked for their ideas of quarantining Paducah, stated that they did not believe it necessary, and would vigorously oppose such a step.

A quarantine usually means to have a man put on every incoming train and see that all persons from the fever infected country getting off here shall have a certificate of health from properly constituted authorities.

And that no freight or express coming out of New Orleans, or other infected districts be allowed to stop or be unloaded here for local delivery or for transfer to other points; that no empty chicken coops or egg cases coming from New Orleans or other infected districts, shall be opened or allowed to stand upon the railroad tracks within the corporate limits of the city.

Dr. J. W. Pendley, president of the board of health, stated this afternoon that he intended calling a meeting of the board for tomorrow night to discuss the yellow fever situation and see what the inclination of the board is.

A silly report today that there were two cases of yellow fever in Paducah was probably intended by the person who started it as a joke, but if the health authorities can locate the person starting such fakes, that person will not think it a joke long. Such reports spread with great rapidity and it is almost impossible to spread a denial as rapidly and effectively as the report itself is spread.

The skies were cloudy and the weather threatening, but the Raylets broke forth and completely blinded the Indians in an eleven inning contest at Wallace park yesterday afternoon in the presence of over a thousand fans.

The game was bad for the Indians from the first, McGill hitting a homer over right field fence, but in the following inning the Indians tied the score. In the fifth inning the Raylets came forward with two more tallies and it took the Indians until the eighth to tie up again. One score was made in the fifth and another in the eighth. The playing was not sensational on either side and the crowd was very quiet.

The ninth and tenth innings were played with goose eggs to the credit of both sides, and in the first half of the eleventh the infants took on a batting streak and scored two more runs.

With the score three to three, one man out and Bell, who had doubled, on third base, Downing knocked the ball to left-center, Bell scored and Klipp, who had taken a walk, followed him in. Downing stretched the double to a triple and was caught at third but Bohannon dropped the ball. The next two men sawed the wind and the Indians failing to do anything, the Raylets walked off the grounds with the first victory over Indians out of five played since the new series started.

Mickey Finn, manager of the Nashville team, has written Chief Lloyd a letter asking to buy or trade McClain to him. He wants "Brownie," but can't get him. Finn stated that Paducah can get on in the Southern league but it will cost about $5,000. Finn is "out" with his infield and is needing good fielders. He was struck with McClain's hitting and holding when training out his Toledo team.

Last season when the Price showboat was repaired here on the ways, Capt. Gaches met many Paducah people and in a measure became a full-fledged Paducahan. So much did he feel like a Paducahan that he got out and coated like a fender for the Indians yesterday and as a mark of appreciation for their good work, extended them all an invitation to the show tonight.

The Paducah boys will all accept.

Those who are talking about Paducah's going into the Southern league should show their good faith by turning out and helping support this league. Paducah is not paying expenses now. "If we had to spend the money Calro, Vincennes and other clubs have spent this season furnishing transportation to new players to try out," declared one man who knows, "Paducah would have been hundreds of dollars in the hole. As it is, we have made only one or two changes, and have not had to spend a dollar bringing new players, and still the team has not played."

The Cotton States league will tonight close its season on account of the yellow fever scare in the south. Nationals Took 6 Out of 7.

The Paducah Nationals, Ben Lloyd manager, administered a defeat to the Chattanooga Gladiators that will sting to the latter a long time. They played seven games here this past week, and the Paducah aggregation of colored players took six of them, winning the last of the series Saturday by a score of 8 to 7, ten innings.

Cotton States Disbands.

Vicksburg, Miss., July 31.—Because of quarantine restrictions the Cotton States league of baseball clubs has practically suspended. At the close of yesterday's game with Meridian the local association disbanded its team. The closing of Baton Rouge and Greenville by quarantine made it impossible to play the schedule on.

Greenville is in the lead with 667 per cent with Meridian second with 520.

POLITICAL NOTES FROM THE DISTRICT

Republican State Central Committee Meets at Louisville.

Judge Nunn States Positively He Will Not Run for Governor—Livingston May Beh.

PRIMARY HELD IN CALLOWAY

A meeting of the Republican state central committee has been called for tomorrow morning at Louisville.

The most important business that has so far developed is the selection of a state Republican campaign committee. R. P. Ernst was chairman last year, but the committee dissolved after the election. If Mr. Ernst can spare the time he will probably again be selected for the position.

Contests in one or two counties may also come up for discussion. The committee in Pulaski county has again become tangled and must be unraveled. The last meeting was devoted chiefly to a settlement of the trouble in Pulaski county, and it was thought the trouble was settled, but it has bubbled up again. Two chairmen of the committee have again been elected. Napier Adams, circuit clerk of the county, is one of the chairmen, and J. C. Parker is the other. The decision of the state committee at the last meeting gave Adams a majority in the Pulaski county committee.

Judge Thomas J. Nunn, of the court of appeals, who was in the city a few days ago, and was reported to be erecting a few fences preparatory to getting into the race for the gubernatorial nomination, probably will not run. He is quoted by the Madisonville Graphic as saying he had no intention of running. Says the Graphic:

"When the Judge arrived in Madisonville a few days ago we met the genial gentleman as he was getting off the train. We asked him in regard to his candidacy and wanted to know the truth about the rumor. We have his word for it that he is not now, nor does he expect soon to be a candidate from that exalted position. He is fully satisfied with being one of the judges of the highest court in the state. While we are not authorized to say so for him, yet it is certain that he will be a candidate to succeed himself."

Democrats in Livingston county seem to be divided and want a fusion ticket to run against the regular Democratic nominees. The ticket recently nominated does not appear to please a large number of Democrats, and a meeting was held at Hampton Saturday afternoon and a committee appointed to attend the Republican convention to be held tomorrow at Smithland, and urge a fusion ticket. M. Hodge presided over the meeting and the following committee was selected to appear before the Republican convention and urge the coalition: H. F. Kumble, W. T. Ward, C. H. Webb, Jr., G. N. McGrew, Albert Butler, K. W. Lay, W. H. Oliver, Al Doan, H. A. Vonneg, J. R. Farris and Tom Champion.

The ticket nominated at the Democratic primary, which some of the best Democrats in the county are said to oppose, is as follows:

County Judge, Thomas Evans; county clerk, Pat H. Bush; county attorney, T. Everett Butler; sheriff, Geo. M. Wilson; jailer, R. W. Cowper; coroner, J. O. Boyd; surveyor, P. R. Vick; assessor, Gay R. Gibbs; county superintendent, R. F. Habb; magistrate, W. H. Taylor; constable, Leavin Danlap.

The Democratic primary in Calloway county Saturday resulted in the nomination of Zeb Stewart, an attorney of Murray, for representative, by a majority of 317. Robert Stout was the only other candidate. Stewart is said to be a Blackburn man.

Other nominations were: James Edwards, candidate for sheriff, over Charles H. Fulton by a plurality of 73 votes. J. M. Dogard, the third candidate for sheriff, received less than 100 votes.

Everett Hughes for mayor of Murray, by a plurality of 54 votes. The other candidates for mayor were George Aycock and T. A. Miller.

S. P. Simpson for police judge over W. F. Peterson and John R. Schroeder by 17 plurality.

Senator J. S. C. Blackburn, it is reported, will soon begin to reap the reward of opposing the machine of his party. According to rumors in circulation, the Democratic state campaign committee has decided to shortly assign him to Louisville to make speeches during the campaign. The campaign committee being part of the machine, is against Senator Blackburn. He will have to espouse the cause of the Louisville gang, which is opposed to him for re-election, or come out against it and thus oppose the regular nominees of his party. Senator Blackburn denounced the Louisville machine in a speech at the last Democratic convention. The Post says:

"In return for this speech a solid delegation has been nominated for the legislature from Louisville, all of whom are against Blackburn."

"The plan now is to bring Mr. Blackburn to Louisville in the hope of either forcing him to repudiate the Louisville ticket as undemocratic or to make a plea for his bitterest enemies."

"It was stated by a close friend of Mr. Blackburn today that if the senator comes to Louisville the machine is likely to profit little thereby. It is believed that if he does make any speeches in Louisville Mr. Blackburn will repeat his assertion that the Louisville ring has no claim to

DILDAY RESIGNS

DOES NOT LIKE THE WAY BUSINESS HAS BEEN FALLING OFF.

Former Paducah Leaves the Equitable in Indiana, and Tells His Reasons Why.

A dispatch from Indianapolis, Ind., says:

Noble J. Dilday, who since 1902 has been general manager for Indiana of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, tonight forwarded his resignation to Paul Morton, president of the society.

With the resignation Mr. Dilday sent printed matter setting forth the reasons for his resignation, one of which he stated was that the business of the Equitable in Indiana has suffered considerably, and that the number of policies written during the present month thus far has been 50 per cent. less than during the same time last year.

In explaining his action, Mr. Dilday states also that he is not in favor with G. E. Tarbell, second vice president of the society.

According to Mr. Dilday's statements the agency in Indiana is uneasy, and business is in a bad condition. "This, with Tarbell's alleged ill-feeling towards him, he thinks, is sufficient reason to cause him to resign."

In the closing paragraphs of his communication to President Morton, Mr. Dilday says he regards going out of the Equitable much as he would leaving home. He states that he had "learned to place great trust in all of the officers and until the investigation of the independent committee of the managers in April he had always placed great faith in Mr. Tarbell."

"What the change in the new management will bring forth nobody seems to be able to make anything like a prediction," he writes.

Mr. Dilday formerly lived in Paducah, and has many friends here. He was at one time one of the proprietors of the Paducah Standard, and when he left Paducah it was to become one of the state agents of the Equitable in Kentucky, with headquarters at Louisville. He rose rapidly and the position he has just resigned is one of the best in Indiana.

It is not stated what Mr. Dilday will do, but is more than likely that he has a good offer with some other company.

be considered Democratic."

Senator Blackburn is shortly to make several speeches in Southwest Kentucky. He speaks at Bardwell on August 5, and at La Center, Ballard county, on August 7. He will speak in Paducah at an early date, it is announced.

The entries for the Democratic city primary in Paducah August 21, close tomorrow, Tuesday, at midnight. There is very little interest being taken and only a few candidates have announced. There are not yet candidates for all the offices to be filled—police judge, council, board of aldermen and board of education. There was never a city election, it is said by some of the politicians, that elicited less interest here.

The Democratic senatorial committee for this district will meet Saturday and call off the senatorial primary, as Hon. J. Wheeler Campbell is the only candidate, and it will not be necessary to hold a primary. The Republicans have not yet taken much interest in the race, and no one is prominently mentioned as a probable Republican candidate.

Many a Paducah Reader Will Feel Grateful For This Information.

When your back gives out; Becomes lame, weak or aching; When urinary troubles set in; Your kidneys are "in a bad way." Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you. Here is local evidence to prove it. J. R. Womble, of 1005 South Fourth street, says: "An attack of typhoid fever twenty years ago left me with weakened kidneys and I have had some pretty severe attacks of backache, some of them so bad that I have had to crawl around the house on my hands and knees. There was no rest, neither day nor night despite the use of a vast quantity of medicine and more than one prescription. With very little expectation that I would get relief I tried Doan's Kidney Pills, procuring them at DuBois, Kolb & Co.'s drug store. One day's treatment convinced me that they were going to the spot and when I stopped their use the last attack disappeared."

DEED OF A BRUTE.

Long Cut Indicted on Mr. Maurice Gammon's Horse.

Mr. Maurice Gammon, the well known paper hanging contractor, is looking for a vandal of the worst class, and if he finds him will prosecute him to the fullest extent of the law.

Yesterday morning when Mr. Gammon went out to his stable to hitch up his horse, he found the animal standing in a pool of blood with his body partially soaked in blood. The horse had been cut on the hip, a gash fourteen inches long having been inflicted with a sharp knife. The wound was deep and Dr. C. G. Warner, the veterinary surgeon, had to make 49 stitches to close it.

Mr. Gammon does not know who did it, and has no clue. The horse was locked in the stable as usual Saturday night and whoever cut the animal seemed to have gone there for the purpose.

RESIGNS AS PRESIDENT.

Mr. H. A. Rose Leaves the Kentucky Mill and Lumber Co.

Mr. H. A. Rose, the lumberman, has resigned as president and director of the Kentucky Lumber company, but has not decided whether he will remain in Paducah, or not. The company has headquarters in Cairo, W. B. Smith, of Louisville, formerly of Paducah, and H. H. Layton, of Paducah, are the main owners of the company.

A meeting of the board of directors will be held tomorrow to elect a new president.

Had a Lively Time of It.

Mr. Emil Piness, the well-known machinist who has been in Chicago, has returned to Paducah with anything but pleasant recollections of the Windy City. Mr. Piness has his right hand bandaged up and will be disabled for some time, the result of strenuous life in Chicago. He was struck by a street car and when down was run over by an automobile and his hand badly mashed and several small bones broken. He returned home for repairs and will not return before he has entirely recovered.

Yellow Jack.

It comes as a shock, this story of yellow fever at New Orleans. In the memorable epidemic of 1878 yellow fever carried away 5,000 souls in New Orleans and Memphis and the country between. Even the North remembers those days—the terror thereof, and the suspense. For that matter the North had cause of its own to dread the pestilence. Later than 1822 Philadelphia was scourged by it. Boston was a fellow sufferer in 1797. Of late years it has crept up the Mississippi valley, only to be checked fortunately by sanitary measures and redeeming frosts. The whole country is with the South on guard against it. There is reason to believe that man's fight against the pestilence is on the point of victory. That such a gratifying result is possible is shown by the fact that the disease has been rare even in Cuba since the Americans occupied the island in 1898 and cleaned it. All that is needed now is to corner the fugitive cases that may develop on the Gulf coast and treat them with the concentrated experience of a costly past, and strike the final blow that will make it a happily forgotten nightmare.

Heard Wireless Message 1780 Miles.

Washington, July 31.—Lieut. Kalsar, who had charge of the wireless apparatus on board the cruiser Brooklyn, flagship of Rear Admiral Sigsbee's squadron, on the trip to France and return, has made a report to Rear Admiral Massey, chief of the bureau of equipment, on the tests which were made during the voyage to determine at what distance wireless messages may be received aboard ship from shore stations.

The lieutenant reported that the longest distance at which wireless messages were read during the daytime was 540 sea miles, and at night 1100 sea miles, while a wireless signal was heard at a distance of 1780 sea miles. The message received at a distance of 100 miles, it was stated, came in so strong that doubtless it could have been heard at a still greater distance. Admiral Sigsbee, while in the English channel in a dense fog, sent a wireless message broadcast, requesting that the American ambassador at Paris and the American consul at Cherbourg be notified of their coming. The messages were heard, the report stated.

HOUS REDEDUCED

In All But the Car Repair Department at the I. C. Shops.

The Illinois Central, on account of being well up with its repair work, has reduced the working hours from nine to eight in the local shops for about four hundred of its local employees. The shop men affected are those in the machinist, paint, tank repairing and blacksmith departments. The men in the car department will continue to work ten hours.

The company makes the reduction in hours a preference to a reduction in force. The cut is effective tomorrow, August 1st, and affects everybody working in the Paducah shops except the car repairers proper.

Went to Smithland.

Messrs. James, Ben and Charles Wellie and Will Kicke went to Smithland in an automobile yesterday, and were fortunate enough not to have a single accident. They experienced considerable trouble in getting up a river bank, the mud of which from receding water was deep, but made good time notwithstanding. The cyclometer showed that the distance from Wellie's store to Smithland is a fraction under eighteen miles.

Daily Thought.

The more you know, the more you can save yourself and that which belongs to you, and do more work with less effort.—Kingsley.

PUNISH THE GUILTY.

If any of the auditor's agents is guilty of grafting in the manner alleged in current reports, he is guilty of a felony. The good people of the state demand that if guilty, he or they be punished. Here is the law affecting the cases:

Chapter 46 of the session acts of 1904: "Any member of the general assembly or other executive, judicial, ministerial or legislative officer of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, or of any county or city who shall take or agree to take bribe to do or omit to do any act of his official capacity shall forfeit his office, be disqualified from the right of suffrage for 10 years and confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years."

Some argue that the property owner, who by failing to list his property courts a back tax suit, is as guilty as the auditor's agent, and perhaps he is morally, but this doesn't excuse the auditor's agent who is a public official, and under oath to perform his duty.

When he takes the place he obligates himself to do certain things, and he is responsible to the people if he doesn't. He can impose on countless people by virtue of his office if he is not an honest man. He can become anything from a petty grafter to a blackmailer. The investigation should go on and the state administration should show that it is in earnest by vigorously prosecuting everyone shown to be guilty.

Put up the whitewash brush and get busy.

New Orleans is losing thousands of dollars a day in business and the end is not in sight, because of the yellow fever scare. This is very unfortunate, particularly as the loss and inconvenience have spread to many other cities and districts that by rights should not be affected. If a small part of the money now being lost by the business interests of New Orleans had been spent for better sanitation, there might today be not even a vestige of the scourge in the Crescent City, and millions of dollars might have been saved to the south. Of course this is only a conjecture. It is reasonable, however, Yellow fever might never have obtained a foothold had the New Orleans authorities been paying more attention to hygienic measures and better sanitation. They doubtless realize it now, but it is too late. It will serve as a good lesson for future reference, however.

Here is Chicago's record since January 1st, as given by the Chicago papers: 65 murders; 131 assaults; 182 burglaries; 274 holdups. Yet Mayor Dunne is gallivanting about the country telling how he's going to lay the street car lines of Chicago. It would seem from the above statistics that there are things that need his time and energy far more than buying the street car lines. It is always unfortunate, however, to have a crank in office, especially an important office.

The people in the West End should go before the legislative boards and demand that something be done to abolish the open sewer that exists in the shape of a big creek gully of stagnant water and filth, into which it is said numerous residents are drained. It is a nuisance which may sooner or later cause a widespread epidemic.

The board of health of Paducah should issue an order for a general cleaning up. Every town and city in this part of the country has been improving the sanitary condition for several days now, but nothing whatever has been done in Paducah. It's better to do it now and be on the safe side.

Senator J. Wheeler Campbell is the only democratic candidate for state senator and will get the nomination. If we republicans are to be defeated in the race, there is nothing more comforting than to know it will be by a good man—and an uncommonly bright one.

Revenue Agent Harrison seems to have a few things to explain to the state, but the state is not very particular, and usually accepts most any kind of an excuse.

By the time the city gets through "fooling around" figuring on those street names to be posted in the business district, the names of all the streets may have been changed.

Senator Jo is beginning to realize the difference between playing politics and having politics played. In one case you are the doer, and in the other the "donee."

The Mayfield papers announce that there is not a single person in jail there charged with selling whiskey. They must have stopped arresting them for it.

Hygiene and sanitation do not prevent yellow fever, but they often prevent its getting a start.

BUGGY BROKE DOWN.

When Paducah Men Were Several Miles From Home.

Messrs. John Crider, Rufus Reighny, Jim Gohagan and Sterling Price, of the local I. C. wood working department, had a very strenuous experience near Florence Station yesterday morning.

They engaged a rig and started to Florence to attend the bedside of Mr. Joe Green, a fellow earman who is precariously ill of typhoid fever, and when the top of a high hill was reached, the horse slipped down and broke the pole and a wheel.

Farmers residing in the neighborhood came to the earman's assistance and repaired the buggy sufficiently to enable the four to get home again.

Judge Sanders' Bill Amounted to $50 With Scollaps.

Charles Leverter Threatened to "Eat Up" a Customer, $20 and Costs—Jones in Trouble.

NEWS OF THE OTHER COURTS

It took Police Judge D. L. Sanders just one hour this morning to go through his docket, and when he finished had assessed fines aggregating $142 without the costs. Judge Sanders had a would-be cannibal, a crazed youth whose wild desire to break up a dance got him into trouble, a man who has fits very conveniently and several minor cases.

Walter Jeffords, a white boy of about 18 years, went to a dance in Meachlesburg Saturday night and with a broomstick tried to knock out the lights. He was asked several times to desist but paid no attention. He thought nothing of using profane language in the presence of ladies, the evidence showed, and when approached by Drew Starrett, a well known young man of the South Side, and asked in a gentlemanly manner to stop swearing and to behave, he became worse. Starrett started away but Jeffords went after him with a stick and they "mixed." Jeffords was wearing a bandage over his eye and his left cheek was badly bruised.

Judge Sanders in commenting on the case stated that a great deal of trouble had been reported in these dances where "young bucks" got full of liquor and wanted to run the dance. He did not approve of Jeffords' conduct and fined him $50 and costs and dismissed Starrett. In addition to the fine he recognized Jeffords in the sum of $100 for 12 months for his good behavior.

Charles Leverter, a colored barber, was arraigned for using insulting language towards Robert Tidwell, a white man who had gone in to get a shave. The evidence developed the fact that Leverter claimed the patron owed him 25 cents which Tidwell denied. Leverter then called him names and told him he would eat him for lunch—that he was not feeling very good that day. Judge Sanders did not think this a courteous way to treat a customer and assessed a fine of $20 and costs.

Parish Jones, a white man who seems to be afflicted with epilepsy, went to the residence of T. W. Bowen and going into the sitting room conducted himself in a namelessly indecent manner in the presence of the family. Judge Sanders said that Jones' case was a hard one to decide; that he had been up for entertaining Adam Welkert and on numerous other occasions but always managed to elude the law on account of "having fits." Judge Sanders suggested that he be tried for lunacy but County Attorney Graves did not think he was a lunatic and the court assessed a fine of $25 and costs.

Mrs. M. Sweeney, an aged woman of the South Side, was arraigned for drunkenness. Her little ten-year-old boy complained to Judge Sanders of his mother's conduct and wanted to leave town. Judge Sanders gave the woman a severe lecture and she promised to do better, but he held her case up. He intimated that he might send her to jail and see what that would do for her, as she is said to be an habitual drunkard and often in court.

Dock Jackson, a negro, was arraigned for beating Dora Wilson, colored. He admitted that he was guilty. Judge Sanders wanted to hear more about it and asked what the woman did to him. Dock stated she had done nothing. He struck her, he explained, because he was drinking. Judge Sanders fined him $50 and costs.

Sauu Barker, colored, arraigned for betraying May Cratchfield, colored, and on producing a certificate of marriage, the warrant was dismissed.

Other cases were: Jim Bulger, white, breach of the peace, continued; Fred McGraw, white, disorderly conduct, $5 and costs; Robert Greer, colored, whipping Hattie Pruitt, $20 and costs; Tom Clark, white, drunk, $1 and costs; Joe McClure, breach of the peace, continued.

Amended Articles.

Amended articles of incorporation of the Paducah Toilet Supply Co., were filed today in county court. The amended articles increase the capital stock from $1,200 to $1,500 and the extra $300 increase is to be paid by the directors at par to be used as the board sees fit for the betterment of the incorporation.

Sues For $5,000.

Teresa Bach has filed suit in circuit court here against George C. Wallace and R. B. Phillips for $5,000 damages for injuries received about six weeks ago by getting caught in some cogs in the Alden Knitting mills, which was operated by the defendants.

Suit Against Estate.

J. E. Crafton has filed suit in circuit court here against J. W. Riggsberger, administrator of the estate of the late Frank Riggsberger, for $388.60 claimed on an old judgment obtained in Tennessee. The plaintiff lives in Waverly, Tenn.

Suspect Arrested.

Ed Hamilton, colored, who has an injured left foot, was arrested this morning by Officers McCune and Orr as a suspect. He told several different tales about himself.

It was learned this afternoon that Hamilton had shipped from Fulton 250 pounds of lead and a large box of copper. Hamilton stated he got some of the plunder at Wickliffe, some at Hardwell and some at Fulton. It was shipped to Paducah from Fulton as freight. Hamilton is still being held pending word from the three cities mentioned above. It is thought he may be a junk thief who collects copper, brass and lead and sells it.

Col. Dale's Suit On Trial.

Justice R. J. Barber is today trying the case of Bud Dale against the city of Paducah. Col. Dale is proprietor of the New Richmond Hotel, and during the smallpox scare last winter a patient was discovered in his hotel with a case of smallpox. The patient and his family were removed to the vicinity of the pest house and established in a separate house, which was furnished from the room he resided in at the hotel. Col. Dale alleges he had the assurance that the city would repay him for the staff taken from his hotel, but the city refused to do so. He agreed to compromise for $60, but the boards turned the proposition down. He now sues to recover the full value of his furnishings, $82.

DISHONORED OBLIGATION.

A Great Work in the Interest of the City Crippled Needlessly.

The writer, who has for sometime been a close observer of everything connected with the welfare of Paducah, and especially the work being done by the Commercial club in advertising the city was shown a letter a short time ago to one of our business men from the head official of the Industrial Department of one of the largest railroads in the country in which he says:

"I am in receipt of some of your advertising matter sent out by your Commercial club, and I take pleasure in saying that the advertising methods pursued by your club are the most up-to-date and effective of any organization of similar nature I am acquainted with in the country. Paducah may well feel proud of its Commercial organization."

In looking into this matter and talking with the officials of the club, it has been learned that the advertising and correspondence done by the association, and the advertising matter sent out through a number of local business houses furnished by the Commercial club has brought a great many inquiries from various sources, inquiring about the advantage of Paducah for manufacturing and other business enterprises. Showing inquiries from all parts of the country, especially from the East and Northwest, where the greater part of the advertising matter has been sent. These facts show that the advertising has been effective, and also that it ought to be kept up, and in fact the amount being done, increased.

HAPPY COUPLE

Passed Through Paducah and Were Married at Metropolis.

Justice William Wright, of Metropolis, Ill., yesterday married Mr. Thomas Ballard, and Miss Nora Stewart, of Trigg county. An account of the event from Metropolis is as follows:

Metropolis, Ill., July 31, 1905.

The Sun, Paducah, Ky.

Mrs. Mollie Hren, and her little daughter, of Paducah; and her son, Thomas Ballard, and his bride-to-be of Trigg county, Ky., embarked on the Cowling, headed for Metropolis, and, not knowing that there was such a city as Brookport, stepped off at the first opportunity to reach land and the court-house, for the young people were evidently looking backward, expecting to see the old folks from Trigg, and when it dawned on them that they were too hasty to make the best time, the Cowling left them so they took the first train, and arrived in possession of the requisite credentials, about 3 p. m. when they at once engaged in a short dialogue with Justice Wright, which consummated the union of the hearts and hands of Mr. Thomas Ballard and Miss Nora Stewart for life, and they all were evidently more at ease, and it is presumed took the Fowler for home.

Prof. E. A. Fox Coming.

Prof. E. A. Fox, of Louisville, secretary of the state Sunday School Association, will arrive today to attend the Sunday school convention tomorrow. Prof. Fox formerly resided here and was a principal in the public schools, and has many friends here. He has been secretary of the Sunday School Association ever since he left Paducah, and has made a great success in the work. He will deliver his address here on the "Holy Land, Illustrated with stereopticon views taken on the trip."

DO IT NOW.

Being it is you, and knowing you are a lawyer, doctor, teacher, preacher, merchant, mechanic, man or woman, I will sell you a new upright piano, stool and scarf, for $150, on payments of $5 per month, a discount for cash; second hand pianos in good condition thirty to fifty dollars, $5 cash and $3 per month. Closing out a stock of new Apollo players at $150 to be placed with the Haldwa player, $100 will buy a Maestro player new, only one left, music and song books to give way next week. This may only sound like a joke but 'tis true, keep it dark, it is only meant for you.

W. T. MILLER.

Baseball Players and Foot Racers! Louis J. Kruger, ex-champion long distance foot racer of Germany and Holland, writes, Oct. 27th, 1901: "During my training of eight weeks' foot races at Salt Lake City, in April last, I used Ballard's Snow Liniment to my greatest satisfaction. Therefore, I highly recommend Snow Liniment to all who are troubled with sprains, bruises or rheumatism." 25c, 50c, $1 bottle. Sold by Alvey & List, Paducah, Ky.

UNCAMPOGARY.

Paducah, Ky., June 20, 1905. I have tried uncampegary in place of quinine on my own child, who had fever and I think it is a sure and successful substitute for quinine without the bitter taste and ill effects on the head.

DR. LEE DEMYERS.

The above is a new tasteless quinine form for babies and children who cannot take capsules. It is making a big hit. Try it. At all druggists. Smith & Nagel, special agents, Paducah, Ky. 25c.

I learn from a member of the Membership committee of the club that this work is being hampered to a large extent owing to the fact that many members of the Commercial club have, for one excuse or another, failed, or refused to meet their legal obligations in the payment of their dues, thus curtailing the revenue depended upon to carry on this important work.

In looking over the list I note quite a number of subscribers, who the public doubtless would be surprised to learn had repudiated their obligation to this organization and declined to pay their dues.

It is said that this list will be published in a short time so that the public may know who these gentlemen are that so heartily entered into pledges to assist the Commercial club to the extent of $12.00 per year in advertising Paducah and promoting the city's interests, and now try to avoid payment of the small sum of one dollar per month.

Think of it: a paltry $1.00 per month, and this money to be expended through the direction of a board of twelve directors, men of the highest standing in the community, who are constantly giving their time and money to work that is a direct benefit to every inhabitant of Paducah.

These directors and officers have given much time to the public good and never hesitate to contribute liberally of their time and means to carry on this work.

It seems almost beyond belief that any one would be found in the complete list of Commercial club members who would have so little appreciation of this opportunity to build up a strong organization of representative men, who would fight the battles for right and public good, as to refuse for any reason whatever to contribute $1.00 per month to carry on this work, and especially is this surprising when every one of these backsliders signed an obligation to pay $12.00 per year to this work, which is just as legal and binding as any note or bond they could give, and it appears that a refusal to meet these obligations is a refusal to pay a just and honorable obligation where every sense of right should prompt at different course.

It is understood that the directors and membership committee will press these obligations for payment of dues, in due time even if they have to resort to legal action to collect same.

ONE OF THE MEMBERS WHO PAY.

Croup.

Is a violent inflammation of the mucous membrane of the wind pipe, which sometimes extends to the larynx and bronchial tubes; and is one of the most dangerous diseases of children. It almost always comes on in the night. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup and apply Ballard's Snow Liniment externally to the throat. 25c 50c, $1. LABOR DAY NOTES

MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE HELD AND MINOR BUSINESS TRANSACTED.

Efforts to Be Made to Get Reduced Railroad Rates for Labor Day.

The Labor Day committee of Central Labor Union held a meeting yesterday afternoon, but transacted little business outside of routine.

R. M. Miles was received as a committeeman from the Leather-workers' union, and Mr. Sanders, of the ship caulkers, was appointed to have charge of the raffle of a furniture suite.

The resignation of Mr. Gibson, of the Retail Clerks, as assistant marshal of the parade, was received and Mr. Sanders, of the Ship Caulkers, was appointed in his place.

The matter of securing railroad rates for the Labor Day celebration was referred to a committee. It is expected that hundreds of visitors will be in Paducah for Labor Day, but a low rate is desired, particularly as Cairo, many of whose laboring people formerly came to Paducah to celebrate, now have a celebration of their own.

GETTING READY FOR 8TH.

Colored People Have Two Antislavery Series Close to One Another.

The usual "emancipation" celebration will take place in Paducah on August 8 and the colored people of Paducah are already preparing for it at the various places where they usually celebrate it. It seems that the colored people in various places have various times for celebrating the event, and Cairo this year announces a celebration on August 4, four days ahead of the Paducah celebration. Excursions will be run in there on all trains, and boats and it is presumed that Cairo will try to get all the coin in this neck of the woods before the Paducah celebration. Paducah seems to be a popular place for the celebrations, however, as thousands of negroes come here from all points between Louisville and Memphis, St. Louis and Chicago.

BLAZE IN SHAVINGS.

Discovered at the Rigglesberger Mill Last Night.

The fire departments were called to the Rigglesberger mills on South Third street Sunday night about 8 o'clock.

Someone going through the mill building had thrown a cigar stump on the floor and shavings had become ignited and were making a great deal of smoke. The firemen extinguished the smoldering fire without any trouble and no damage was done.

TOWED THE DISTRICT.

To Locate the Positions of Street Names.

Mr. Robert Richardson Saturday started on a tour of the business portion of the city to locate corners, houses and poles on which the numbers and names of streets will be placed.

He is doing this in order to have a good map of the city showing the location of every intersection, this being absolutely necessary for the contractors to bid on the work. He will have the map ready in a day or two.

Indigestion.

With its companions, heartburn, flatulence, torpidity of the liver, constipation, palpitation of the heart, poor blood, headache and other nervous symptoms, sallow skin, foul tongue, offensive breath and a legion of other ailments, is at once the most widespread and destructive malady among the American people. The Herbine treatment will cure all these troubles. 50c bottle.

The Savannah is due out of the Tennessee river this afternoon for St. Louis.

The Charleston leaves tomorrow evening for the Tennessee river.

The Dick Fowler left for Cairo this morning at 8 o'clock.

The Peters Lee passed up last night at 9 o'clock from Memphis for Cincinnati.

The City of Saltillo passed up this morning from St. Louis for the Tennessee river.

The Hees Lee passes down tomorrow from Cincinnati for Memphis.

The Reuben Dunbar left for Clarksville at noon today.

The Joe Fowler left at 10 o'clock this morning for Evansville.

The Catherine passed up yesterday with empty barges for the rock quarries on the Cumberland river.

The Harvester left yesterday for Memphis with a tow of coal.

Price's floating palace arrived in Paducah Sunday and will show tonight at the wharf. The Price shows are always the top notches on the river and the parade this morning was very creditable. The boat will go to St. Louis and up the Illinois river after leaving Paducah, not taking the Mississippi route to New Orleans on account of the yellow fever scare.

The Payonia left for the Tennessee river for this morning.

The Charles Turner left this morning for the Tennessee river.

Gossip that has been going the rounds about the probability that a Ryan liner or two would be put into the Ohio river trade for the summer months is likely not to realize. There was some talk of putting the Red River into the Evansville and Owensboro trade, and again it was suggested that the line put a boat into the trade between Cincinnati and Cairo. Capt. U. J. Lovell, agent of the coal combine at Paducah, was in the city Saturday, the guest of Capt. Frank Turley.—Evansville Journal-News.

For the next few days the river will be filled with towboats going up with empties from New Orleans to the Ohio river. These boats all took down large tows of coal a short while ago and are on their way back with empties. The Sprague left Helena Saturday and is expected to pass up in a day or two stopping long enough for supplies. She will be followed by the J. B. Finley, Joseph H. Williams, Hoxie and Alice Brown.

The boats of the Lee Line, which have been running in the Memphis and lower river and Mississippi trade, will run until the middle of August or longer if water permits, but the season has been good, and consequently the rivermen are happy over the outcome of the continuous rains and the continuation of navigation. These boats are receiving their share of the business, and it is possible that an additional boat will be put in the trade next season. This will make a boat leave Cincinnati every four days instead of every seven days if the contemplated plans go into effect.

A Wheeling special to the Enquirer says: "One of the largest steamboat deals to take place in this section of the valley was consummated today when Gordon C. Greene, William B. Rowe, M. F. Noll, June Greenwood and Jesse P. Hughes disposed of their interests in the Courier, the Tacoma, the M. P. Wells and the Henry M. Stanley, all first class packets, to the Cincinnati, Pomeroy and Charleston Packet Company. The consideration was not made known, but from the valuation placed upon the boats individually it is believed by rivermen in this section that the transfer involves at least $120,000. The deal is looked upon as a very important one by packet owners, as it will, to a certain extent, change the trade situation. The Courier was built in 1885, the Tacoma in 1897, the M. P. Wells in 1888 and the Stanley in 1890."

Mr. William Arste, publisher of the Waterways Journal, of St. Louis, was in Paducah Sunday. He left for Memphis at 6 o'clock p. m. on business. Mr. Arste finds that business in the Tennessee and Cumberland rivers in the tie trade is very slack at present.

The Return of SHERLOCK HOLMES

By A. CONAN DOYLE

Author of "The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes," "The Hound of the Baskervilles," "The Sign of the Four," "A Study in Scarlet," etc.

ILLUSTRATED BY F. D. STEELS

The Adventure of Charles Augustus Milverton

No. 7 of the Series

"You'll be interested to hear that I'm engaged."

"My dear fellow! I congratulate!"

"To Milverton's house?"

"Good heavens, Holmes!"

"I wanted information, Watson."

"Surely you have gone too far."

"It was a most necessary step. I am a plumber, with a rising business."

"You mean you are a plumber?"

"You must play your cards as best you can when such a snake is on the table."

"However, I rejoice to say that I have a hard rival, who will certainly cut me out the instant that my back is turned."

"What a splendid night it is!"

"You like this weather?"

"It suits my purpose, Watson."

"I mean to burglar Milverton's house tonight."

"I had a catching of the breath and my skin went cold at the words, which were slowly uttered in a tone of concentrated resolution."

"As a flash of lightning in the night shows up in an instant every detail of a wild landscape, so at one glance I seemed to see every possible result of such an action—the detection, the capture, the hon"ored career ending in irreparable fall and disgrace, my friend himself by the way at the mercy of the odious Milverton."

"For heaven's sake, Holmes, think what you are doing!" I cried.

"My dear fellow, I have given it every consideration. I am never precipitate in my actions, nor would I adopt so energetic and, indeed, so dangerous a course if any other were possible."

"Let us look at the matter clearly and fairly. I suppose that you will admit that the action is morally justifiable, though technically criminal."

"To burglar his house is no more than to forcibly take his pocketbook, an action in which you were prepared to add me."

"I turned it over in my mind."

"Yes," I said, "it is morally justifiable so long as our object is to make no articles save those which are used for an illegal purpose."

"Exactly. Since it is morally justifiable I have only to consider the question of personal risk. Surely a gentleman should not lay much stress upon this when a body is in most desperate need of his help?"

"You will be in such a false position."

"Well, that is part of the risk. There is no other possible way of regaining these letters. The unfortunate lady has not the money, and there are none of her people in whom she could confide."

"Tomorrow is the last day of grace, and unless we can get the letters tonight this villain will be as good as his word and will bring about her ruin. I must therefore atone my client to her fate or I must play this last card. Between ourselves, Watson, it is a sporting duel between this fellow Milverton and me. He had, as you saw, the best of the first exchanges, but my respect and my reputation are concerned to fight it to a finish."

"Well, I don't like it, but I suppose it must be," said I. "When do we start?"

"You are not coming?"

"Then you are not going," said I. "I give you my word of honor—and I never broke it in my life—that I will take a cab straight to the police station and give you a heavy unless you let me share this adventure with you."

"You can't help me."

"How do you know that? You can't tell what may happen. Anyway my resolution is taken. Other people beside you have self respect and even reputations."

"Holmes had looked annoyed, but his brow cleared, and he clapped me on the shoulder."

"Well, well, my dear fellow, be it so. We have shared this same room for some years, and it would be amusing if we ended by sharing the same cell. You know, Watson, I don't mind confessing to you that I have always had an idea that I would have made a highly efficient criminal. This is the chance of my lifetime in that direction. See here?" He took a neat little leather case out of a drawer and, opening it, he exhibited a number of shining instruments. "This is a first class up to date burgling kit, with nickel plated, jimmie, diamond tipped glass cutters, adaptable keys and every modern improvement which the march of civilization demands. Here, too, is my dark lantern. Everything is in order. Have you a pair of silent shoes?"

"I have rubber soled tennis shoes."

"Excellent! And a mask?"

"I can make a couple out of black silk."

"I can see that you have a strong natural turn for this sort of thing. Very good, you took the mask. We shall have some cold supper before we start. It is now 9.30. At 11 we shall drive as far as Church row. It is a quarter of an hour's walk from there to Appledore Towers. We shall be at work before midnight. Milverton is a heavy sleeper and retires punctually at 10.30. With any luck we should be back here by 2 with the Lady Eva's letters in my pocket."

Holmes and I put on our dress clothes so that we might appear to be two theater goers homeward bound. In Oxford street we picked up a hansom and drove to an address in Hampstead. Here we paid off our cab, and with our greatcoats buttoned up, for it was bitterly cold and the wind seemed to blow through us, we walked along the edge of the heath.

"It's a business that needs delicate treatment," said Holmes. "These documents are contained in a safe in the fellow's study, and the study is the anteroom of his bed chamber. On the other hand, like all these stout little men who do themselves well, he is a phlegmatic sleeper. Again, there is my friend, says it is a joke in the servants' hall that it's impossible to wake the master. He has a secretary who is devoted to his interests and never budges from the study all day. That's why we are going at night. Then he has a hound of a dog, which roams the garden. I met Agatha late the last two evenings, and she looks the brute up so as to give me a clear run. This is the house, this big one in its own grounds. Through the gate now to the right among the hedges. We might put on our masks here, I think. You see, there is not a glimmer of light in any of the windows, and everything is working splendidly."

With our black silk face coverings, which turned us into two of the most truculent figures in London, we stole up to the silent, gloomy house. A sort of tiled veranda extended along one side of it, lined by several windows and two doors.

No Whiskey Sellers in Jail.

Mayfield, Ky., July 31.—The county jail is now free from any prisoner on the charge of selling whiskey and has not had one for about four weeks. When Judge Webb entered the office of county judge over three years ago, there were 74 "dives" in operation in the county and now there is not a single one, but wholesale houses and they will soon be gone.

How Is Your Heart?

Is your pulse weak, too slow, too fast, or does it skip a beat? Do you have shortness of breath, weak or hungry spells, fainting, smothering or choking spells, palpitation, fluttering, pains around the heart, in side and shoulder, or hurt when lying on left side?

If you have any of these symptoms your heart is weak or diseased, and cannot get better without assistance.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure strengthens weak hearts, and rarely ever fails to cure heart disease. Try it, and see how quickly you will find relief.

"About January 1st, 1902, I took down with weakness and droopiness, and gradually grew worse. I was told by my family physician that my case was hopeless. My neighbors and family had given me up to die. My limbs and body were swollen to one-third larger than normal size, and water had collected around my heart. For at least three months I had to sit propped up in bed to keep from smothering. I sent for five bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and by the time I had taken them all I was entirely cured. I feel better than I have for twenty years, and I am able to do any kind of work on my farm. My attending physician told me that if it hadn't been for Dr. Miles' Heart Cure I would now be in my grave."

"About January 1st, 1902, I took down with weakness and droopiness, and gradually grew worse. I was told by my family physician that my case was hopeless. My neighbors and family had given me up to die. My limbs and body were swollen to one-third larger than normal size, and water had collected around my heart. For at least three months I had to sit propped up in bed to keep from smothering. I sent for five bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and by the time I had taken them all I was entirely cured. I feel better than I have for twenty years, and I am able to do any kind of work on my farm. My attending physician told me that if it hadn't been for Dr. Miles' Heart Cure I would now be in my grave."

STILL A MYSTERY

SPECIAL GRAND JURY UNABLE TO LEARN DEAD MAN'S NAME.

Today Announced at Mayfield That It Believed It to Be a Case of Murder.

The Cairo Bulletin has the following printed in regard to the Mayfield murder mystery:

"Some months ago there was found hidden under a hay stack at Mayfield, Ky., the body of a man who had been brutally killed and his body mutilated. Since then the authorities have been constantly at work on the mystery and Saturday the grand jury announced that the body was that of Will Marshall, and that he had had a large roll of money in his possession the day before the murder. It is stated that sensational developments and arrests may follow at any moment."

The special grand jury empaneled to investigate the case issues a statement today through the Mayfield Messenger saying that while the jury believed the unknown man to have been murdered, it was unable to establish his identity or the identity of the person responsible for his death. This is in substance all that is said in the report. The above report in the Illinois paper is without foundation.

MANY SITES

Will Doubtless Be Considered For Big College.

The Commercial club is meeting with encouragement in its efforts to secure the Methodist college, and already two sites have been offered the committee. A number of others are under consideration but no selection will be made until they have all been given due consideration. The committee appointed to inspect all available sites is composed of the following: H. C. Rhodes, chairman; C. E. Jennings, B. H. Scott, C. K. Wheeler and Rev. T. J. Newell. A sub-committee has been appointed consisting of Messrs. Jennings, Rhodes and Scott to look at four or five other sites that have been suggested. The subscription list is open at Commercial headquarters on South Fourth street.

A big boiler and machine shop wants to come to Paducah, and has made the Commercial club a proposition, which will be placed before the merchants and business men this week. It employs several hundred men and has a capital of several hundred thousands dollars.

KENTUCKY NEWSLETS

Fulton Man Dies.
Fulton, Ky., July 31.—Mrs. C. C. Osgood, of this city, received a telegram announcing the death of her husband at Hot Springs, Ark. Mr. Osgood was found dead in bed from apoplexy. The body will be brought to Fulton for burial. Osgood traveled for Cahill-Swift company, of St. Louis.

Another Big Coal Deal.
Henderson, Ky., July 31.—It is reported here that the Arnold Coal company, of Spottsville, Ky., has sold its property to Indianapolis parties for $75,000. The property consists of the shaft at Spottsville and 2,000 acres of coal rights.

A Pennsylvania company, which owns over 2,000 acres of coal rights southwest of Spottsville, has had two agents in that neighborhood for the past week and it is believed it is the intention of the company to sink a shaft soon, making the second shaft at Spottsville.

Tennessee Puts Lid On.
Memphis, July 31.—Following the quarantines established by Memphis and Chattanooga the entire state of Tennessee this afternoon closed its doors against New Orleans and all other points where yellow fever is prevalent. This action was taken at a joint meeting here of the state, city and county boards of health. It was also arranged for the three health boards named to actively co-operate here as the main gateway to the state to the infected districts. Governor Cox promised his active support in carrying out the quarantine regulations.

Death of Mrs. Louisa Smith.
Mrs. Louisa J. Smith, aged 74, of Jefferson street, died yesterday from general debility. She had been in feeble health for quite awhile, but had been ill but twenty-four hours when she died. She was born in Berlin, Germany and came to this country when 12 years old. She was a member of the Presbyterian church, and a Christian woman highly respected. She leaves a husband and four children. One is Bunny Smith, electrician for the street railway, and a daughter lives in the county and another in Pittsburgh, Pa. The funeral was at 4 p. m. today, burial at Oak Grove.

Murdered Woman Barred.
Nashville, Tenn., July 31.—The remains of Mrs. Percy J. Luster, who was found murdered in her home at Guthrie, Ky., Saturday morning, were brought here and the funeral held at the residence of her father yesterday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. W. C. Golden, Baptist, and were very largely attended. Conspicuous in the crowd were many members of the Daughters of the Confederacy. Mrs. Luster long having been a worker in that organization. There was a great profusion of floral offerings from people of Nashville. Luster has long been considered by those who knew him here as more or less morose and given to aberrations of the mind. He has not yet been found.

POOR FIDO'S OWNER MUST PAY THE TAX

License Inspector Has Scores of Warrants to Swear Out.

Every Dog Owner in the City to Be Summoned if He Hasn't Paid the License This Year.

SOME OTHER POLICE MATTERS.

License Inspector Ed. Rivers intends getting after dog owners in earnest this week and is only waiting for the policemen to turn over their books with the names of every dog owner in the city who has not paid a license.

The policemen make a note of every dog seen without a license tag, and when they have completely worked their beat, turn the books in to the inspector who checks them over and makes out a list of unpaid licenses.

These books will be delivered to the inspector this week and Inspector Rivers stated he would get out warrants to keep the entire police force busy serving them for a week.

Today not over 200 dog licenses have been paid this year, and it is said there are several hundred dog owners here.

Chief of Police James Collins has received a telegram from authorities at Lambert, Miss., saying that Jim Smith, colored, alias "Jabbo," is wanted there for the murder of Tommy Hardin, colored, and to hold him. The telegram instructed the local police to hold Smith until Lambert officers could come after him. The police are positive they have the right man because the name is correct, and Davis, the negro who pointed out the alleged murderer to the officers, stated he was in the crap game and saw the shooting.

Luther Gray, colored, who lives near 14th and Washington streets, complained to the police this morning that he had been "touched" for $4.70 while he slept Saturday night. He stated he went to the house of Lige McKeynolds, colored, and "put up for the night," and on awakening, was surprised to find his money gone. He had no clue, but officers are working on the case.

Lieutenant Frank Harlan this morning received a telephone message stating that a man named English residing on a houseboat moored at Owens Island opposite the city, was beating his wife. Officers were dispatched to the river front, but could learn nothing about it, having no way to get across at once. They will make an investigation this afternoon.

ADVANCE DETACHMENT

Arrives Tomorrow to Lay Off the Camp.

Two car loads of apparatus arrived this morning from Louisville and were sidetracked at 11th and Broadway for unloading.

The stuff brought here in these cars is for the preliminaries in establishing the camp at Wallace park when the state soldiers go into camp. The advance guard will arrive here tomorrow to lay off the grounds and make the preliminary arrangements.

RIGHT SCHOOL BOOKS

CAUSE DOUBT IN MINDS OF COUNTY AND CITY SUPERINTENDENTS.

Do All the Books on the State List Have to Be Used in All the Schools?

School officials of the city and county are pondering deeply over what to do with regard to the text book situation. A list of books has been fixed by act of the legislature which every public school in the state is required to use. It is not desired by either the county or city superintendent to use all of the books in the list. It is understood, but they propose to do so if it is necessary to comply with the law.

The matter in doubt is whether the requirement of the law is that all the books on the list shall be used in every school, or merely that all books actually used shall be on the list. In many cases, it is said, there is no necessity for any of the adopted books.

There are three adopted books in written arithmetic and one in mental arithmetic. The use of three books would necessitate the crowding of all of them in a shorter period than is thought wise. The same condition exists in the county schools.

It looks, however, as if the books will have to be used. The provisions of the law are quite stringent and, while superintendents might be willing to incur the responsibility of leaving certain books out of the curriculum, they will not give instructions not to use them because of the liability it would entail on the teachers. The penalty for violation of the act by a superintendent is a fine of not less than $100 and not more than $500. The act also provides that a teacher who fails to teach the required books shall not be allowed to draw his salary or her salary.

It is likely that before school begins some sort of an understanding will be reached between state officials and county and city teachers. In regard to just what the law means and how far their authority goes.

Unless there is, there will be indefinite confusion in the schools.

A LIVELY CHASE.

After William Doyle, Who Shot John Sharpe.

William Doyle, who shot John Sharpe on Livingston Point near Ledbetter, Livingston county, Saturday, is still at large and officers all over this end of the state are after him.

Doyle was seen, or a man answering his description, on the Cairo road Saturday afternoon late by residents of the county. He was riding a wheel and going pretty fast, seeming to be excited. Officers in Paducah were notified of the man's appearance and City Jailor Tom Everts and Officer Ed Alexander started in pursuit. They remained on the chase Saturday night and Sunday but could not find their man.

It is thought he gained the railroad near Wickliffe and has taken a train for the south. At last accounts Sharpe was alive and had good chances to recover.

The reason why relations with a bank make money go farther is because when you must keep an account of all your cash transactions you are pretty apt to be more prudent than you are when you pay money from your pocket.

MUCH BUSINESS

HAS BEEN TRANSACTED IN PADUCAH DURING JULY.

The City's Expenditures Will Aggregate $41,000 For the Month.

City Treasurer John J. Dorlan and Auditor Alex Kirkland were kept busy today winding up the business of July, and found that this month has been a heavy one in the payment of money.

Saturday night Treasurer Dorlan paid out to the Western German National bank of Cincinnati, O., $1,000 interest on the $200,000 bonds issued for the building of streets, hospital and market house. This pays the interest for this year and the next six months installment of interest will not fall due until February.

Auditor Kirkland finds that the city has bills payable aggregating $21,000 and this with $14,000 for the schools and $6,000 all told in interest will aggregate $41,000, a heavy month in the payment of debts.

Farmers' Club Organized.

Hardwell, Ky., July 31.—A farmers' club, authorized by the Kentucky legislature, was organized here by R. C. Crenshaw, assistant commissioner of agriculture. The officers of the Carlisle county club are: N. R. Taylor, president; A. F. Elsey, vice president; Tom C. Pettit, secretary, and T. T. Gardner, treasurer.

Mr. Nance to Stay

The state managers of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance company, of Newark, N. J., urged Mr. T. M. Nance to reconsider his resignation sent in a few days ago, and he will stay with the company for a while at least. Mr. Nance wanted to go to Colorado to be with his daughter who is there for her health, but owing to present conditions in the insurance field his company urged him to remain in Paducah.

The Mutual Benefit is an evidence of the value of conservatism and economical management in every detail. It has been in business over sixty years and is doing business at a less proportion of expense than ever before.

Mr. Nance is changing policies for dissatisfied policy-holders every day, and if you have one you don't like, see him. If you have a tentative policy on which you have paid 1, 3 or 7 years, see Mr. Nance. He will show you that it pays to get out.

VACATION.

For Your Summer Outing

Allow us to suggest Colorado and Utah, famous the world over for their cool and invigorating climate, magnificent mountain scenery and picturesque summer resorts, which are located along the line of the Denver and Rio Grande, "The Scenic Line of the World." Very low excursion rates and "Circle" tour tickets are on sale during the summer months via these lines to all the principal points of interest. The Denver and Rio Grande, with its numerous branches penetrating the great states of Colorado and Utah have some forty different "Circle" tours through the Rocky mountains, one of which in particular is the famous 1,000-mile tour for $28.00, which comprises more noted scenery than any similar trip in the world, passing the following points of interest: La Veta Pass, Poncha Pass, Toltec Gorge, Indian reservations, Durango, Mancos Cañon, Rico, Lizard Head Pass, Las Animas Cañon, Silverton, Ouray, Cimarron Cañon, Black Cañon of the Gunnison, Marshall Pass and the Royal Gorge. This trip can be comfortably made in five days, but at least ten days should be devoted to it, so that one may view at leisure the principal sights. Tickets at very low rates are also on sale at Salt Lake City, Utah. If you contemplate a trip through Colorado or Utah, let us send you some heartily illustrated booklets free.
